  - c. Vice President: no report
  - d. Ways & Means: Thank you from Kate to all those that helped with the pie sale. ? Chateau Night Fundraiser on February 9th. ? Trivia night on April 1st – will re-discuss Jim Plunkett night and date TBA when Kate confirms.
  - e. MB Cord: Maria has located a company for instrument pins to sell “Harmony Jewelry”. $5.00 for silver, pewter & gold plated pins. Could sell for $10.00 each. Will inquire about key chains. Company has same day shipping and no minimum order requirement. Kate will speak with a company point person.
  - f. SHS Choral: Net loss of $400 on Madrigal banquet. Caterer was more expensive – issues with quality of the service for that evening. Appeared to be short staffed. Will review whether to change caterer for Snowflake Ball; suggestion to talk to Paul Angelo @ OCC.?? With use of kitchen @ Elks Hall as well by caterer.
  - g. SHS Inkster: $261.00 sold in merchandise @ 8th grade concert. Thanks to Craig Chisholm for storing the merchandise @ CMS.
  - h. Sponsor Letter Cord: Ed Ferris has sent out 548 sponsor letters. Ed Ferris has kindly donated the postage and paper for the letters: Thank You. Ed suggested sending the letters out @ a different time of the year; before holidays may not be a good time.
  - i. President’s Announcements: Snowflake Ball scheduled for 1/14/2011. Ticket price increased to $35. Chaperones being arranged. Will inquire if Bob Howe can DJ the event. Another option, Ricky Reardon. Looking into decorations and favors for the event. Website will updated with information when all information available. Students can use student account money for the cost of this event. Kelleigh also presented preview of newly designed PMA flyer that we would like to pass out @ concerts and events that explains what the PMA is about. Jerry Miller has also contacted PMA for memorabilia for the “NHS Last Hurrah” on June 11th. Also looking for support and volunteers from PMA. PMA will try to contact former members for this event.
